

Press Release:

October 8, 2024

Contact: Alia Kapasi, 864-706-3483

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kirsten Engel Wins Second Televised Debates

Engel emphasizes her message of freedom and unity in contrast to her opponent

TUCSON, AZ — Today, Alia Kapasi, campaign manager for Kirsten Engel's Campaign for Arizona's 6th Congressional District, released the following statement on Kirsten's impressive debate performance in her second and final televised debate. The debate was hosted by the Citizens Clean Elections Commission and can be watched here in English and here in Spanish.

"Kirsten Engel proved tonight that she is the leader that southern Arizona deserves in Congress," said Alia Kapasi, Engel's Campaign Manager. "For the second time, Ciscomani failed to answer for his extreme views on abortion and his long history with the radical organization, the Patriot Academy. Voters in the 6th district absolutely deserve better than Ciscomani, and they're going to make that clear next month at the ballot box."

Engel faces Ciscomani in a rematch from 2022, where she lost by approximately 5,000 votes despite being outspent 6 to 1. Last cycle, Ciscomani refused to debate Engel on television, and this year, Ciscomani refused to debate his primary opponent, who was able to garner more than 40% of the vote.

###

Kirsten Engel is a mom, an environmental attorney, and a former State Legislator who has fought for years to restore funding to public schools, protect Arizona's natural resources, and make our communities safer. She's ready to take that fight to Washington to find common-sense solutions to the challenges we're facing here in Arizona's Sixth Congressional District.